Conditions for inspection by AML/CFT authority

26.—(1) An AML/CFT authority may, with the prior written approval of the Authority and under conditions of secrecy, conduct an inspection in Singapore of the books of a financial institution in accordance with this section, if all of the following conditions are satisfied:

- (a) the financial institution is one over which the AML/CFT authority exercises consolidated supervision authority, and the inspection is solely for the purpose of such consolidated supervision;

(b) the AML/CFT authority —

(i) is prohibited by the laws applicable to it from disclosing information obtained by it in the course of the inspection to any other person, except when compelled to do so by the laws or a court of the country or territory where it is established; or

(c) the AML/CFT authority has given a written undertaking to the Authority to comply with such conditions as the Authority may impose under subsection (3);

(d) the AML/CFT authority has provided or is willing to provide similar assistance to the Authority.

(2) The Authority may take into account other factors which the Authority considers relevant, besides the satisfaction of the conditions under subsection (1), when deciding whether or not to give its approval under that subsection.

(3) The Authority may at any time, whether before, on or after giving its approval for an inspection under this section, impose conditions on the AML/CFT authority relating to —

(a) the classes of information to which the AML/CFT authority may or may not have access in the course of inspection;

(b) the conduct of the inspection;

(c) the use or disclosure of any information obtained in the course of the inspection; and

(d) such other matters as the Authority may determine.

(4) An AML/CFT authority may, with the prior written approval of the Authority, appoint any person to conduct the inspection under subsection (1), and in such event, this section (other than this subsection) and sections 27 and 28 apply to the person, as if a reference to the AML/CFT authority in those sections includes a reference to the person.

(5) For the purposes of ensuring the confidentiality of any information obtained in the course of an inspection by an AML/CFT authority under this section, each provision set out in a paragraph below applies, with the necessary modifications, to any official of the AML/CFT authority, and any person referred to in subsection (4), as if the official or person were a person set out against that provision in that paragraph:

(2) The financial institution need not give the AML/CFT authority access to the books of the financial institution, or provide information or facilities, at such times or at such places as would unduly interfere with the proper conduct of the normal daily business of the financial institution.

(3) Subsection (1) has effect despite any obligation of confidentiality or other restrictions on the disclosure of information imposed on the financial institution or any of its officers by any prescribed written law or any requirement imposed under any such written law, any rule of law, any contract or any rule of professional conduct.

(4) A financial institution that, without reasonable excuse, refuses or neglects to comply with subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $100,000 and, in the case of a continuing offence, to a further fine not exceeding $10,000 for every day or part of a day during which the offence continues after conviction.

(3) In granting approval for any disclosure under subsection (2)(d), the Authority may impose such conditions or restrictions as the Authority thinks fit on the financial institution, any officer or auditor of that financial institution or the person to whom the disclosure is approved, and that financial institution, officer, auditor or person (as the case may be) must comply with those conditions or restrictions.

(4) The obligations on an officer or auditor under subsections (1) and (3) continue after the termination or cessation of the employment or appointment of the officer or auditor by the financial institution.

(9) Without affecting subsections (6) and (8) and despite any written law or rule of law, where a company which is carrying on or has carried on the significant business in Singapore of a specified financial institution is being wound up, its liquidator (whether appointed under the Insolvency, Restructuring and Dissolution Act 2018 or, in the case of a foreign company, appointed at its place of incorporation or origin) must give the Authority such information as the Authority may from time to time require about the affairs of the company and the winding up.

is considered terminated by reason only of the transfer, but each of these continues in full force and effect, and is enforceable by or against the transferee (as the case may be), as from that date, as if the transferee had been named in it or had been a party to it instead of the transferor; and

(c) any proceedings or cause of action, by or against the transferor, pending or existing immediately before that date and relating to the business (or any part of the business) may be continued and enforced by or against the transferee as from that date.

(9) Subsection (8)(b) does not apply to a contract of employment.

(10) To avoid doubt, this section does not affect the operation of section 18A of the Employment Act 1968.

(11) To avoid doubt, the business (or any part of the business) of the transferor is transferred to and vests in the transferee in accordance with subsection (8), despite any incapacity of the transferor.

(12) Where the transferor is an insurer licensed under the Insurance Act 1966 and guaranteed policy moneys under a policy have been adjusted under the certificate —

(a) the policy owner or claimant continues to have recourse against the transferor for the difference between the original guaranteed policy moneys and the adjusted guaranteed policy moneys; and

(b) any agreement or other arrangement mentioned in subsection (8)(b) has effect as if the guaranteed policy moneys have been so adjusted.

(13) The certificate does not have any effect or operation in transferring or otherwise vesting land in Singapore until the appropriate entries are made with respect to the transfer or vesting of that land by the appropriate authority.

(14) Section 130(1) of the Insolvency, Restructuring and Dissolution Act 2018 does not apply to the transfer of any property under the certificate.

(15) If any specified business is governed by the law of any foreign country or territory, and the transferee so requires, the transferor must take all necessary steps for securing that the transfer of the specified business to the transferee is fully effective under the law of that country or territory.

(16) The transferor and the transferee must each lodge, within 7 days after being served with the certificate —

- (a) a copy of the certificate with the Registrar of Companies;
- (b) where the transferor or the transferee is a co-operative society, a copy of the certificate with the Registrar of Co-operative Societies; and
- (c) where the certificate relates to land in Singapore, an office copy of the certificate with the appropriate authority concerned with the registration or recording of dealings in that land.

(17) A transferor or transferee that fails to comply with any provision in the certificate shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $250,000 and, in the case of a continuing offence, to a further fine not exceeding $25,000 for every day or part of a day during which the offence continues after conviction.

(18) A transferor that contravenes subsection (15) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $250,000 and, in the case of a continuing offence, to a further fine not exceeding $25,000 for every day or part of a day during which the offence continues after conviction.

(2) The Authority may make such determination if —

(a) the board of directors of the transferee (if it is a corporation), or the committee of management of the transferee (if it is a co-operative society), consents to the reverse transfer; and

(b) the conditions prescribed by regulations made under section 135 are met.

(8) A determination under subsection (1) or an approval under subsection (4)(a) or (b) of the determination does not prevent the exercise of any power by the Authority or the Minister under this Act or the relevant Act applicable to the transferor.

Reverse transfer certificate

71.—(1) If the Minister approves a determination under section 70, the Minister must, as soon as practicable, issue a certificate (called in this section the reverse transfer certificate), which is to come into effect on the date specified in the certificate.

(2) The reverse transfer certificate must specify such information as may be prescribed by regulations made under section 135.

(3) The reverse transfer certificate may make provision for one or more of the following matters:

- (a) the reverse transfer approved by the Minister;
- (b) the effective date of the reverse transfer, if different from the date on which the reverse transfer certificate comes into effect;
- (c) the consideration, if any, to be returned by the transferee to the transferor and the period within which the consideration is to be returned;

- (a) subject to subsection (10) —
 - (i) the business that is the subject of the reverse transfer is transferred back to and vests in the transferor without other or further assurance, act or deed; and
 - (ii) the reverse transfer certificate has effect according to its tenor and is binding on any person affected by it;
 - (b) no deed, bond, agreement or other arrangement mentioned in section 67(8)(b) which relates to the business that is the subject of the reverse transfer is considered terminated by reason only of the reverse transfer, but each of these continues in full force and effect and is once again enforceable by or against the transferor, as the case may be;
 - (c) no deed, bond, agreement or other arrangement —
 - (i) that is entered into by the transferee after the transfer of business under the certificate of transfer under section 67, but before the effective date of the reverse transfer; and
 - (ii) which relates to the business that is the subject of the reverse transfer, is considered terminated by reason only of the reverse transfer, but each of these continues in full force and effect, and is enforceable by or against the transferor (as the case may be), as if the transferor had been named in it or had been a party to it instead of the transferee; and

 - (d) any proceedings or cause of action, by or against the transferee, pending or existing immediately before the effective date of the reverse transfer (including those mentioned in section 67(8)(c)), and relating to the business that is the subject of the reverse transfer may be continued and enforced by or against the transferor as from that date.

- (9) To avoid doubt, this section does not affect the operation of section 18A of the Employment Act 1968.

(10) Section 67(11) to (20) applies in relation to a reverse transfer as it applies to a transfer of business under that provision as if —

- (a) a reference to the business to be transferred is a reference to the business that is the subject of the reverse transfer;
- (b) a reference to the transferor is a reference to the transferee;
- (c) a reference to the transferee is a reference to the transferor; and
- (d) a reference to the certificate of transfer is a reference to the reverse transfer certificate.

73.—(1) If the Minister approves a determination under section 72, the Minister must, as soon as practicable, issue a certificate (called in this section the onward transfer certificate), which is to come into effect on the date specified in the certificate.

(4) The Minister may, at any time before the onward transfer certificate comes into effect, add to, vary or revoke any matter specified in the onward transfer certificate.

(5) On or before the date on which the onward transfer certificate comes into effect, the Authority must cause the onward transfer certificate and any addition, variation or revocation mentioned in subsection (4) —

- (a) to be served on the transferee and the 2nd transferee; and
- (b) to be published in the Gazette and in such newspaper or newspapers as the Minister may determine.

(6) Subject to subsection (7), unless otherwise specified in the onward transfer certificate, the effective date of the onward transfer is the date on which the onward transfer certificate comes into effect.

(7) Despite any written law or rule of law (including section 67 as it applies to the certificate of transfer in question), on the effective date of the onward transfer —

- (a) subject to subsection (10) —
 - (i) the business that is the subject of the onward transfer is transferred to and vests in the 2nd transferee without other or further assurance, act or deed; and
 - (ii) the onward transfer certificate has effect according to its tenor and is binding on any person affected by it;

- (b) no deed, bond, agreement or other arrangement (including any deed, bond, agreement or other arrangement mentioned in section 67(8)(b)) which relates to the business that is the subject of the onward transfer, is considered terminated by reason only of the onward transfer, but each of these continues in full force and effect and is enforceable by or against the 2nd transferee (as the case may be) as if the 2nd transferee had been named in it or had been a party to it instead of the transferee; and
 - (c) any proceedings or cause of action, by or against the transferee, pending or existing immediately before the effective date of the onward transfer (including those mentioned in section 67(8)(c)) and relating to the business that is the subject of the onward transfer may be continued and enforced by or against the 2nd transferee as from that date.
