No. 1827 — CONSTITUTION OF THE REPUBLIC OF SINGAPORE

NOTICE OF PROPOSED DEPRIVATION UNDER ARTICLE 133(1)

WHEREAS you, Radin Imran Bin Radin Mohd Yassin, Singapore Birth Certificate no 914889 and Singapore Identity Card no. S1540089G, were born in Singapore on 04 Nov 1962, and are a citizen of Singapore by birth;

AND WHEREAS the Minister for Home Affairs is satisfied that you, while over the age of 18 years, had acquired the citizenship of Malaysia and in consequence whereof your citizenship is affected by Article 134(1)(a) of the Constitution of the Republic of Singapore (the “Constitution”);

AND WHEREAS the Minister for Home Affairs proposes to make an Order under the said Article 134(1)(a) of the Constitution to deprive you of your citizenship;

NOW, THEREFORE, take notice —

- (a) that the ground on which it is proposed that such an Order be made is that you have, while over the age of 18 years, acquired the citizenship of a country outside Singapore, namely, Malaysia;
- (b) that you have a right to have your case referred to a Committee of Inquiry under Article 133 of the Constitution;
- (c) that you may apply within 21 days of the date of this Notice to have the case referred to the said Committee; and
- (d) that if you fail to make the application as provided in paragraph (c) above, the Government may proceed to make the Order of deprivation of citizenship under Article 134(1)(a) of the Constitution.
